The mission of the David Andrew “Pooh” Maddan Foundation (DAM-Cancer Foundation) is to provide financial assistance to young adults diagnosed with cancer and to fund innovative cancer treatments and research.

Since July of 2009, the David Andrew “Pooh” Maddan Foundation (DAM-CANCER Foundation) has provided more than 235 financial grants to young adult cancer patients, ages 18 through 35, the most financially vulnerable of all the cancer age groups. Additionally, DAM-CANCER Foundation is funding a clinical trial on the treatment of sarcomas in young adults at USC / Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center.
